

UAF Co-Curricular Guide

ASUAF Students may run for Senate, President, or Vice President.

Athletics Students may try out for a team as a walk-on Career Services Cover Letters, Resume and Interviewing Prep Encourage students to develop their job-seeking and job-keeping skills early, - before their last semester.

Externships or Job Shadowing Students can try out an occupation or two for a short period of time.

Honors program Students may apply after their freshman year as long as they meet the criteria for the program.

Internships Students can get on-the-job training and in some cases credit towards their degree program, or even a stipend.

Intramurals A great way for students to keep in shape and have fun.

Job Fairs Students can explore majors by attending any of the numerous job fairs throughout the year. Freshmen and Sophomores will find out what skills and majors employers are looking for, and Juniors and Seniors can apply for internships or career opportunities.

KSUA UAF's student-run radio and tv station.

Leadership Development Students can be involved in the Freshman Leadership Academy and Co-Curricular Opportunities for Leadership Development (COLD) certificates for Levels I, II, & III.

National Student Exchange Students can spend a semester or two at another U.S. or Canadian university.

Northern Leadership Center Students who want to get involved in the community do so through Students Offering Leadership Development (SOLD).

Peer Advising Junior or Senior students who take this course and practicum advise students with their educational plans.

Resident Assistant This program is for students interested in developing fun programs and assisting students living on-campus.

ROTC UAF's Army ROTC program. Students who complete the program may train to be an officer in the U.S. Army.

Rural Student Services Alaska Native students and students from rural Alaska find a slice of home here as well as academic advising and tutoring services.

Student Activities Students have a say in student activities year-round and have a say on the Concert Board.

Student Ambassadors Students are trained by Admissions Counselors to talk to other students about UAF and provide campus tour visits for prospective students and visitors.

Student Jobs on Campus Students who are employed part-time on campus tend to earn higher grades than students who do not have a job at all or are working off-campus.

Student Organizations There are over 100 student organizations, and if a student can't find an organization of interest, he or she may apply to develop a new student organization.

Student Support Services Students who are first generation to complete a bachelor's degree, are financially limited and/or have a disability may qualify for this federally-funded TRiO program.

Study Abroad Students can spend a semester or two in another country.

Sun Star Students don't need to be a journalism major to write or take photos for the Sun Star.

Tutors or Supplemental Instruction Leaders Students learn more by teaching other students and facilitating peer learning.

Undergraduate Research & Scholarly Activity Encourage students to search the database for opportunities to get involved in research, even as a Freshman.

University of the Arctic UAF is a member of this university consortium, so students can take advantage of the student exchange, research, and academic opportunities here.

Volunteer Opportunities Students will help others locally, nationally, and internationally via Alternative Spring Break, SOS, and Springfest Service.

Women's Center This is the place for students to get involved in gender equity or LGBTA issues.